* Excerpt of pertinent information

: According to Nicolae DIANU, the situation in National Committee is understood at Paris to be very bad, with Radescu refusing to deal with the Peasant members. It is understood that both factions have appealed to the King for a settlement. However, rumor is that Radescu will form a new committee based on his old government in Bucharest of which several members are abroad. This is meeting with some favor as a workable solution. If a new committee is so constituted it can be expanded to include other elements. The problem is the attitude of the King.

This is all the pertinent information on subject in this document.
